

VC Introduces New Board Chair

On behalf of the Vancouver College faith and learning community, I am pleased to introduce Susan Dvorak, who was elected Chair of the Board of Directors of Vancouver College Limited. She succeeds Edward Wright who served as Chair for the past six years.

Sue's education and professional training was in the field of physiotherapy and rehabilitation, although she also manages three businesses founded by her and her husband.

Sue is the mother of six children, two of whom, Adam and Levi, graduated from Vancouver College in 2015 and 2018. She was an active parent at VC and at other schools including St. Patrick's Regional Secondary School and Immaculate Conception Dunbar. Sue joined the VC Board in 2016 and has served on the Education, Mission & Identity Committee.

Sue and her family are active members of Immaculate Conception Parish where Sue chaired the Parish Education Committee and the sub-committee which oversaw the seismic upgrade of its school this summer.

We all welcome Sue to her leadership role at Vancouver College and wish her great success.

We also express our gratitude to Edward Wright for his tremendous leadership of the Board as Chair over the past six years. Edward joined the Board in 2008 and has provided generous service to the education of boys and young men at Vancouver College. He has agreed to serve as a director one more year.

John H. Nixon, VC'69, President